ONTARIO HOME ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION (OHEA)

- a self-regulating body of registered Professional Home Economists, promotes high professional standards among its members so that they may assist families and individuals to achieve and maintain a desirable quality of day-to-day life.

HOME ECONOMICS PROFESSIONALS ARE ADVOCATES FOR INDIVIDUALS, FAMILIES AND COMMUNITIES

Home Economics/Human Ecology is an amalgamation of multiple disciplines, related to promoting healthy daily living. The everyday challenges faced by today's globally connected family are rarely one-dimensional. A multifaceted body of knowledge to help people cope with life's diverse challenges is provided through the expertise, shared learning and careers of OHEA members.

CAREERS IN HOME ECONOMICS ARE DIVERSE

Our members enjoy careers in corporate, public, and professional practice related to food; family resource management; personal finance; textiles and clothing; shelter and housing; consumerism and consumer science; household management; design and technology; food science and hospitality; human development and family studies; education and community services.

The Professional Home Economist Designation (P.H.Ec.)

Qualifying members will receive the sought-after registered title of Professional Home Economist.

A P.H.Ec. has earned a degree in Home Economics or a related field of study (Human Ecology, Family Studies, Food and Nutrition, Consumer Behaviour) and has met all OHEA requirements.

OHEA received registered status in 1989, providing regulation by an established code of ethics, rules of professional conduct, disciplinary procedures, standards of education and practice.

How to become a Professional Home Economist
